

Transportation

This sector is designed to provide a foundation in transportation services for all industrial technology education students in California. The three pathways in Kern are:

- Operations
- Structural Repair and Refinishing
- Systems Diagnostics and Services

California Future Forecast: New Jobs Annually 227,480

Average Wage: $63,187

Career	Certificate	2-Year	4-Year+	Pay
Ambulance Drivers & Attendants, Non-Emergency/Medical	✓	✓		$40,930
Heavy & Tractor-Trailers Truck Drivers	✓			$51,400
Traffic Technicians	✓			$64,890
Railroad Conductors & Yardmasters	✓			$68,930
Avionics Technician	✓	✓		$75,240
Freight & Cargo Inspectors		✓	✓	$82,060
Crane & Tower Operators	✓	✓		$85,860
Storage & Distribution Managers	✓	✓	✓	$111,560
Air Traffic Controllers	✓	✓		$141,530
Airline Pilots, Co-Pilots & Flight Engineers		✓	✓	$229,110

See the back for schools with these pathways.

Schools with Transportation Pathways in Kern County

Operations

Ground worker, pilot, mechanic

Kern High ROC

North High School

Taft High

Structural Repair and Refinishing

Estimator, claims, inspector

Kern High ROC

Systems Diagnostics, Service & Repair

Technical writer, dispatcher

Arvin High School

Burroughs High School

Kern High ROC

Ruggenberg Career Center

Schuetz Career Center

#IHAVEAPLAN

Kern Education Pledge signatories consists of all 46 public school districts in Kern County, the Kern County Superintendent of Schools, CSU Bakersfield, the Kern Community College District, Taft College, Charters, and community partners.